

UC Irvine Internal Medicine Residency Training Program
PGY3 CPC Presentation Evaluation Document

Resident: _____	Evaluator: _____
Faculty Mentor: _____	Signature: _____
Date: _____

Competency	Description of Competence	Demonstrated
		Yes	No
Patient Care & Clinical Skills	Able to identify key clinical factors, create an appropriate differential diagnosis, and arrive at reasonable conclusions congruent with the facts of the case. Clearly understands clinical reasoning.
Knowledge Base	Appropriate Basic Science and Clinical Knowledge Base
Practice-based Learning	Demonstrated appropriate utilization of Informatics and application of critical appraisal to this case.
Professionalism	Demonstrated appropriate commitment to the project. Interacted well with faculty and other staff. Contacted faculty mentor for the project.
Teaching	Committed to teaching colleagues, organized, able to define and achieve objectives, utilizes appropriate and effective teaching strategies, engaged the audience, good eye contact, knew subject well and spoke without excess reference to notes.
Overall Competence Achieved	Emphasis on Clinical Thinking & Decision-making

Comments & Suggestions:

Return to:

Internal Medicine Residency Program
 101 The City Drive,
 City Tower Suite 400
 Orange, CA 92868
 Fax: 714-456-8874