

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, IRVINE
CENTER FOR OCCUPATIONAL AND ENVIRONMENTAL HEALTH

GRAND ROUNDS

Target Audience - Occupational medicine practitioners, primary care practitioners and other healthcare professionals who desire further training in occupational and environmental medicine.

Purpose - The COEH Grand Rounds consist of current concept lectures on the assessment and management of occupational and environmental health issues. Current research findings will be described, current landmark research will be discussed and in selected cases, relevant journal articles or other materials may also be distributed.

SPEAKER: Kevin P. Byrne, MD, MPH, FAAFP, FACOEM
 Naval Medical Center of San Diego

TOPIC: "The Sleepy Driver and Other Safety Sensitive Positions"

PLACE: University of California, Irvine School of Medicine
 Irvine Hall Conference Center
 1001 Health Science Road, Room 206
 Irvine, CA 92697
 949-824-8641

DATE / TIME: September 11, 2012, from 6:00 to 7:00 PM

Educational Objectives:

- Summarize core competencies in occupational and environmental medicine as identified by the American College of Occupational and Environmental Medicine.
- Describe strategies to assess and manage occupational and environmental health risks in the individual, workplace, and community.
- Cite current research findings in the field of occupational and environmental medicine.
- Discuss key issues in the delivery of occupational and environmental medicine care, including awareness of the workers' compensation system, occupational safety and health law, and occupational and environmental health regulation.

Accreditation Statement:

The University of California, Irvine College of Medicine is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

Designation Statement:

The University of California, Irvine School of Medicine designates this live activity for a maximum of 1 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Disclosure Statement:

Dr. Bryne has disclosed that he does not have any agreement, financial arrangements or affiliation which could be perceived as a potential conflict of interest in his presentation. Dr. Bryne has further disclosed that he will not be discussing the use of any unlabeled drugs or devices in his presentation.

Course Director/Planners: As course director and planners Ulrike Luderer, MD, PhD, MPH, Dean Baker, MD, MPH, and Leslie Israel, DO, MPH, and, have no affiliations, arrangements or financial agreements which could be perceived as a potential conflict of interest. Amelia Ventura, as administrative staff, has disclosed that she has no affiliations, arrangements or financial agreements which could be perceived as a potential conflict of interest. The Planning Committee further discloses that they will not discuss the use of any unlabelled / unapproved drugs or devices.

ADA Statement:

We comply with the Americans with Disabilities Act and will make every reasonable effort to accommodate requests. For special requests, please contact us at least 4 days prior to the meeting.

California Assembly Bill 1195

This activity is in compliance with California Assembly Bill 1195 which requires continuing medical education activities with patient care components to include curriculum in the subjects of cultural and linguistic competency. For specific information regarding Bill 1195 and definitions of cultural and linguistic competency, please visit the CME web site at www.cme.uci.edu.

Please call if you need directions or would like to receive this information by email.
Contact – Amelia Ventura at 949-824-8685 or email venturaa@uci.edu